Trefin
Half Day + Walk

Duration: 2 hours 30 minutes
Length: 4.0 miles (6.5 km)
Grid ref: SM835325

A tranquil and unspoilt walk rich in history.

Look out for: Carreg Sampson Cromlech, Trwyn Lwyd quarry and mill.

Rugged but lonely, quiet and unspoilt with beautiful convoluted cliffs (watch out for the natural rock arch near Pen-Castell Coch) and beaches - the coastline near Trefin is especially rich archeologically.

The Carreg Sampson Neolithic burial site or cromlech (about 3000 BC) is world famous. According to legend the biblical Samson lifted the capstone into place with his finger. Nearby, Ynys-y-Castell has the Grave of Samson’s finger - earlier this century the sides of the monument were filled in and it was used as a sheep shelter. The ruined watermill at Trefin used for grinding wheat and barley ceased trading in 1918 and has recently been restored and made safe.

Character: Rugged coastal terrain, fields and livestock, reasonably level walk, stiles.

Caution: Limited parking at Aberfelin & Abercastle.
