Stack Rocks to St Govan’s
Wheelchair ‘Walk’

Superb path / bridleway 4.9 km with various surfaces. Gradients acceptable (Fieldfare standard); cross fall negligible. Track in most cases not immediate to the cliff but commands fine views over limestone cliff scenery. Because of variable nature of surface and length involved this stretch may be more suitable for adventure chairs. Users of electric chairs report they have completed the route. Five difficult gates. Even on cool, sunny days the sunburn effect can be serious – sunscreen and water should be carried.

Closed during Army range firing times - usually open evenings and weekends. For firing times tel. 01646 662280. No seats. Toilets at Freshwater West (not nearby) and Bosherston car park.
