

Key

- ➔ Key views

1. Views to northern portion of Conservation Area on rising ground houses including Pendryffryn and Rock Terrace
2. View from slipway over beach to sea and distant coastline
3. View from Swan Inn of majority of Conservation Area including Grove Place, Castle Inn and houses along Settlands Hill and Walton Hill
4. Views from The Point sharing northerly portion of Conservation Area including Walton Hill, Settlands Hill and Wesley Road with distant fields. Panoramic coastal views across St Brides Bay
5. View from bridge towards Swan Inn and adjacent buildings set against The Point headland with The Peak prominently visible
6. View across core of Conservation Area: scrub-clad cliff with terraced gardens, and The Point farm backdrop
7. View from foot of Settlands hill up Wesley Road and across rooftops towards Strawberry Hill with distant fields and farm
8. Views along Strawberry Hill from Settlands Hill showing houses in deep wooded valley

- Glimpses to an object/landmark/point of interest

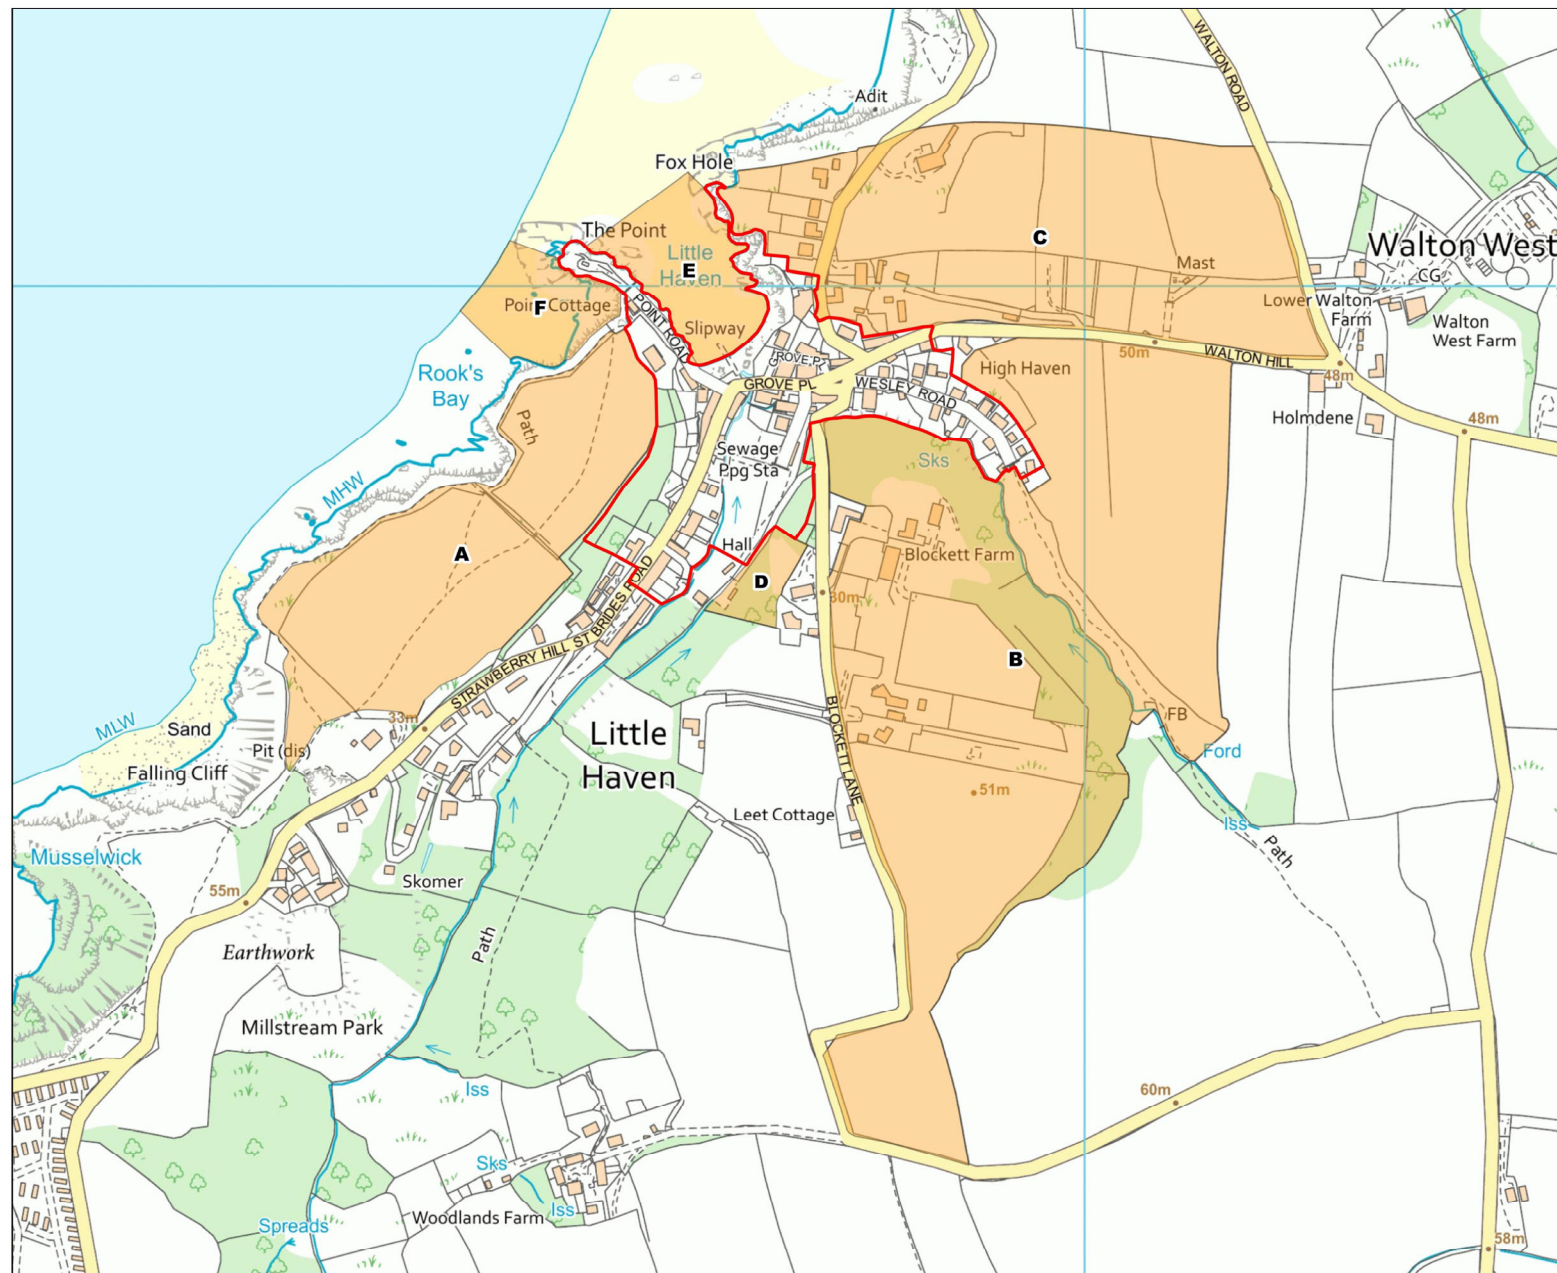

1. Glimpse of Point Cottage and the Peak from Waterloo Cottage
2. Glimpse from Wesley Road towards The Peak
3. Glimpse from Wesley Road towards The Peak

Little Haven

Outlying areas important to the setting and character of the Conservation Area

Little Haven Conservation Area Designated 1998 MAP 3

- A. Fields and woodland north of Strawberry Hill form important backdrop to Conservation Area when viewed from Walton Hill
- B. Valley sides along Wesley Road important to be setting of this part of the Conservation Area. Blockett Farm prominently visible
- C. Coastal slopes form attractive backdrop to Conservation Area when viewed from the west: Haven Fort Hotel prominently visible. Fields west of Walton Hill form backdrop to Conservation Area when viewed from The Point
- D. Lawned garden of Hillcroft; important green setting to car park
- E. Little Haven beach to mean low water
- F. Sheepwash Bay

Little Haven

Prominent views into Conservation Area

Little Haven Conservation Area Designated 1998 MAP 2

- 1. View of Haven Fort Hotel, the Point and "The Peak" set against coastal backdrop.
- 2. View from Walton Hill of sea and scrub-covered headlands; sudden descent into village looking down towards "The Peak" and over general roovescape
- 3. Constricted view from Settlends Hill, narrow lane flanked by houses looking down into wooded valley: views of fields and farmhouse on headlands above
- 4. Views from Strawberry Hill. View down village street flanked by cottages to east side and tree-covered slopes to west

