

Llangwm – medium sized linear village settlement set within undulating landform above the shores of the Western Cleddau, with an important role in coastal trade and coal mining dating from the 16th to the 19th century. The church is a primary landmark feature. The village lies wholly within the Milford Haven Waterway Registered Landscape of Outstanding Historic Interest in Wales. There are attractive views east to the Daugleddau estuary. Only the eastern extremities of the lower parts of the village adjoin the National Park boundary along the shores of the estuary

South eastern edge of Llangwm, overlooking the edge of Guildford

The National Park boundary crosses the middle ground in this view, running across Llangwm Pill

Llangwm village lies within the Milford Haven Waterway area, included on the Register of Landscapes of Outstanding Historic Interest in Wales

This view illustrates the typical vegetation cover and sense of enclosure adjoining the National Park along the soft south eastern edge of Llangwm village, contrasting with the western and northern edges of the village
