8. Appointment of Monitoring Officer

The Chief Executive reported on the outcome of the recent recruitment exercise for the position of Authority Monitoring Officer.

A lengthy discussion ensued on the various approaches the Authority could take to fill the post, including working with other local authorities, using consultants or filling the post from within the Authority itself.

It was RESOLVED that the Chief Executive be instructed to:

- (a) explore the possibility of the current Monitoring Officer remaining in post until such time as the post was filled;
- (b) approach other local authorities with a view to securing the services of their Monitoring Officer or Deputy Monitoring Officer;
- (c) approach those who had shown an interest initially but had not followed up on the matter, and
- (d) review the job description and person specification.
